

SANFL
LEVEL 2 COACH EDUCATION COURSE
16th – 18th February 2018
Function Centre, West Adelaide Football Club
City Mazda Stadium, Milner Rd Richmond

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Assessment 1 - Due by 31st March 2018

Philosophy, Game Plan and Year Plan

Philosophy

Your coaching Philosophy should reflect your beliefs, principles and values. These should guide your decision making and your actions so that they are consistent.
(one A4 page summary is all that is required)

Game Plan

Your Game Plan should be relevant to the team you coach, taking into account the level of the competition, age level, performance in the previous season, realistic aims, and expectations for the coming season.
(a half A4 page summary is all that is required)

Year Plan

Your Year Plan should include up to 3 concise points on your pre-season, in season and post season which should include specific objectives and how you intend on achieving them, refer page 9 of SANFL Football Coaches Diary.

Assessment 2 - Due by 30th June 2018

Practical Assessment

You will be assessed at a training session during the 2018 season by the League Development Manager, or his appointee (approved by the State Coaching Manager, eg Development Coordinator), in your League Club's region/zone. You are responsible to organise a time and venue suitable to the assessor. The assessor will send the assessment form directly to the SANFL High Performance Manager – Talent and Coaching.

An assessment sheet is included in your pack received at the course.

Assessment 3 - Due by 31st August 2018

Diary

Completion of the SANFL Coaches Diary, which pays particular reference to personal/player information, practice exercises, match comments, and most importantly a place at the end to make a brief comment in review of the season (refer to "Year Plan submitted") and a preview of the next season.
